particular Article 7 (5) thereof,

Whereas Annex I to Commission Regulation (EEC) offered to intervention, contains in particular certain requirements relating to the analytical procedures for detecting whey by determining the proportions of certain components in the skimmed-milk powder; whereas it was intended to fix Community limits for the said components following an experimentation period in the Member States of one year from the entry into force of Regulation (EEC) No 625/78; whereas, at the end of that period, it has become evident that the information submitted by Member States is not sufficient to enable a final position to be a new period to enable the necessary experience to be obtained;

are in accordance with the opinion of the Management Committee for Milk and Milk Products,
