GUIDELINES

GUIDELINE OF THE EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK

of 20 July 2012

on the Data Exchange for Cash Services

(ECB/2012/16)

(2012/502/EU)

THE GOVERNING COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 128(1) and (2) thereof,

Having regard to the Statute of the European System of Central Banks and of the European Central Bank, and in particular Article 16 thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) The euro banknote production is organised on a decentralised basis with pooling under which the annual production of different banknote denominations is pooled among the national central banks of Member States whose currency is the euro (hereinafter the 'NCBs') according to the NCBs' percentage shares in the subscribed capital of the European Central Bank (the 'ECB') for the relevant financial year calculated using the NCBs' weightings in the key for capital subscription referred to in Article 29.1 of the Statute of the European System of Central Banks and of the European Central Bank (hereinafter the 'Statute of the ESCB').
- (2) Under the principle of decentralisation as laid down in Articles 9.2 and 12.1 of the Statute of the ESCB, NCBs are entrusted with putting into and withdrawing from circulation all euro banknotes, including those issued by the ECB. In line with this principle, the physical handling of euro banknotes is carried out by the NCBs. Due to the decentralised production scenario with pooling, the efficient cross-border bulk transfers of euro banknotes contribute to the smooth functioning of the cash cycle in the euro area.
- (3) In February 2007 the ECB's Governing Council approved the timetable and a roadmap for further convergence of NCBs' cash services in the medium term with a view to increasing harmonisation and integration to allow stakeholders (in particular the banking industry and cash-in-transit companies) to obtain greater benefits from the single currency, thus, contributing to the Single euro Cash Area.

- (4) The Data Exchange for Cash Services (DECS) is aimed at further harmonising cash services in the Eurosystem. It maximises efficiency in the supply and withdrawal of cash and the functioning of the cash cycle in the euro area. As cash services currently offered by NCBs vary to a significant extent, DECS ensures the interchangeability of data for cross-border cash transactions and bulk transfers of euro banknotes between NCBs that use different cash management systems. DECS does not affect the provision of cash services by NCBs at domestic level.
- (5) Given that the process of convergence of NCBs' cash services will require some flexibility, it is necessary to establish a simplified procedure to make technical amendments to this Guideline. Therefore, the Executive Board should be delegated the powers to make such amendments,

HAS ADOPTED THIS GUIDELINE:

Article 1

Subject matter and scope

This Guideline sets out the requirements the NCBs shall comply with in relation to the use of DECS. This Guideline only applies to the exchange of data between NCBs.

2. If an NCB uses a cash management system based on communication formats other than CashSSP or GS1, it shall convert the communication format of that cash management system to CashSSP or GS1 before transmitting an electronic data message concerning cash transactions or bulk transfers to DECS.

2. Upon receipt of a transaction order message, a feedback validation message is sent by the non-domestic/receiving NCB to the domestic/supplying NCB via DECS, which the domestic/supplying NCB then transmits to the client, for cash transactions, or the supplying NCB, for bulk transfers.
3. After a transaction takes place, the non-domestic/receiving NCB sends a transaction confirmation message to the domestic/supplying NCB via DECS, which the domestic/supplying NCB then transmits to the client, for cash transactions, or the supplying NCB, for bulk transfers.

GLOSSARY

This Glossary defines the technical terms used in this Guideline and its Annexes.

'Approved packaging type' means a safebag, a sealbag, a reusable box, a cardboard box, a euro pallet and half pallet meeting the requirements as decided by the Governing Council of the European Central Bank (ECB);

'Banknote series' means a number of denominations of euro banknotes defined as a series in Decision ECB/2003/4 of 20 March 2003 on the denominations, specifications, reproduction, exchange and withdrawal of euro banknotes ⁽¹⁾ or in a subsequent ECB legal act. The first series of euro banknotes as launched on 1 January 2002 consists of the denominations EUR 5, EUR 10, EUR 20, EUR 50, EUR 100, EUR 200 and EUR 500. Euro banknotes that have revised technical specifications or a revised design (e.g. a different signature for different Presidents of the ECB) only constitute a new banknote series if referred to as such in an amendment to Decision ECB/2003/4 or in subsequent ECB legal act;

'Eurosysteem Strategic Stock' (ESS) means the stock of new and fit euro banknotes stored by certain national central banks (NCBs) to cope with a demand for euro banknotes which cannot be met from the logistical stocks ⁽²⁾;

'Extended custodial inventory programme' (ECI programme) means a programme consisting of contractual arrangements between the ECB, an NCB and individual credit institutions (ECI banks), whereby the NCB: (i) supplies the ECI banks with euro banknotes, which they hold in custody outside Europe for the purpose of putting them into circulation; and (ii) credits the ECI banks for euro banknotes which are deposited by their customers, checked for authenticity and fitness, held in custody and notified to the NCB. The banknotes held in custody by the ECI banks, including those in transit between the NCB and the ECI banks, are fully collateralised until they are put into circulation by the ECI banks or returned to the NCB. Banknotes transferred from the NCB to ECI banks form part of the NCB's created banknotes (data item 1.1). Banknotes held in custody by ECI banks do not form part of the NCB's national net issuance of banknotes;

'Fit banknotes' means: (i) euro banknotes which have been returned to NCBs and which are fit for circulation in accordance with a separate ECB legal act on banknote processing by NCBs; or (ii) euro banknotes which have been returned to credit institutions, including NHTO entities and ECI banks, and which are fit for circulation in accordance with the minimum sorting standards laid down in Decision ECB/2010/14 ⁽³⁾;

'Logistical stocks' (LS) means all stocks of new and fit euro banknotes, other than the ESS, held by NCBs, and for the purposes of Guideline ECB/2008/8 by NHTO entities and ECI banks ⁽⁴⁾;

'New banknotes' means euro banknotes which have not yet been put into circulation by NCBs, NHTO entities or ECI banks, or frontloaded by future Eurosystem NCBs;

'Notes-held-to-order scheme' or 'NHTO scheme' means a scheme consisting of individual contractual arrangements between an NCB and one or more entities (NHTO entities) in the NCB's participating Member State, whereby the NCB: (i) supplies the NHTO entities with euro banknotes which they hold in custody outside the NCB's premises for the purpose of putting them into circulation; and (ii) credits or debits directly the NCB account held by the NHTO entities or by the credit institutions that are customers of the NHTO entities for euro banknotes which are deposited with or withdrawn from the custody premises by NHTO entities or by their customers and notified to the NCB. Banknotes transferred from the NCB to NHTO entities form part of the NCB's created banknotes (data item 1.1). Banknotes held in custody by NHTO entities do not form part of the NCB's national net issuance of banknotes;

'Unfit banknotes' means: (i) euro banknotes which have been returned to NCBs, but which are not fit for circulation in accordance with a separate ECB legal act on banknote processing by NCBs; or (ii) euro banknotes which have been returned to credit institutions, including NHTO entities and ECI banks, but which are not fit for circulation in accordance with the minimum sorting standards laid down in Decision ECB/2010/14 of 16 September 2010 on the authenticity and fitness checking and recirculation of euro banknotes;

'Unprocessed banknotes' means: (i) euro banknotes which have been returned to NCBs but which have not been checked for authenticity and fitness in accordance with a separate ECB legal act on banknote processing by NCBs; or (ii) euro banknotes which have been returned to credit institutions, including NHTO entities and ECI banks, but which have not been checked for authenticity and fitness in accordance with Decision ECB/2010/14.
