THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 1334/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2008 on flavourings and certain food ingredients with flavouring properties for use in and on foods and amending Council Regulation (EEC) No 1601/91, Regulations (EC) No 2232/96 and (EC) No 110/2008 and Directive 2000/13/EC <sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular Article 11(3) thereof,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 1331/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2008 establishing a common authorisation procedure for food additives, food enzymes and food flavourings <sup>(2)</sup>, and in particular Article 7(6) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Annex I to Regulation (EC) No 1334/2008 lays down a Union list of flavourings and source materials approved for use in and on foods and their conditions of use.
- (2) Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) No 872/2012 <sup>(3)</sup> adopted a list of flavouring substances and introduced that list in Part A of Annex I to Regulation (EC) No 1334/2008.
- (3) Annex I to Regulation (EC) No 1334/2008 may be updated in accordance with the common procedure referred to in Article 3(1) of Regulation (EC) No 1331/2008, either on the initiative of the Commission or following an application submitted by a Member State or by an interested party.
- (4) Part A of the Union list contains both evaluated flavouring substances and flavouring substances under evaluation.
- (5) The flavouring substance furan-2(5H)-one (FL No 10.066) is included in Annex I to Regulation (EC) No 1334/2008 as a flavouring substance under evaluation and for which additional scientific data was requested by the European Food Safety Authority (hereinafter 'the Authority'). Such data was submitted by the applicant.
- (6) The Authority evaluated the submitted data and concluded in its scientific opinion of 11 December 2018 <sup>(4)</sup> that furan-2(5H)-one (FL No 10.066) raises a safety concern with respect to genotoxicity as it is genotoxic in vivo.
- (7) The use of furan-2(5H)-one (FL No 10.066) therefore does not comply with the general conditions of use for flavourings set out in Article 4(a) of Regulation (EC) No 1334/2008. Consequently, that substance should be removed from the list without delay in order to protect human health.
- (8) As regards the identification details of furan-2(5H)-one (FL No 10.066) the Authority provides in its opinion additional elements regarding the identity and characterisation of this substance which are not included in its current entry in Part A of Annex I of Regulation (EC) No 1334/2008. In order to ensure clarity and certainty regarding the identity of the substance and to help stakeholders to properly identify this substance, it is relevant to note that further identification details of furan-2(5H)-one (FL No 10.066) provided by the Authority in its Opinion are: the CAS No. is 497-23-4, its JECFA No is 2000 and the JECFA name is 4-hydroxy-2-butenic acid gamma lactone.

COMMISSION REGULATION (EU) 2019/800*of 17 May 2019*amending Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards the extension of the use of carminic acid, carmine (E 120) in certain meat products traditional in French Overseas Territories*(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2008 on food additives <sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular Article 10(3) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 lays down a Union list of food additives approved for use in food and their conditions of use.
- (2) That list may be updated in accordance with the common procedure referred to in Article 3(1) of Regulation (EC) No 1331/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council <sup>(2)</sup>, either on the initiative of the Commission or following an application.
- (3) Carminic acid, Carmines (E 120) is a substance authorised as a colour in a variety of foods in accordance with Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008.
- (4) On 23 June 2017, an application was submitted for the authorisation of the use of carminic acid, carmine (E 120) in certain non-heat-treated meat products. The application was subsequently made available to the Member States pursuant to Article 4 of Regulation (EC) No 1331/2008.
- (5) The applicant requested the authorisation for the use of carminic acid, carmine (E 120) in order to achieve the desired pink colour for certain traditional salted pork offal and beef specialities, such as groin de porc à la créole, queue de porc à la créole, pied de porc à la créole and paleron de bœuf à la créole to meet the consumer expectations in French Overseas Territories where these products have been part of a culinary tradition since the 18th century.
- (6) Carminic acid, carmine (E 120) is added to brine rich in salt into which offal is immersed. In products as marketed, the salt content is at least 70 g per kg of meat so as to safeguard microbiological stability and a long shelf life (often 12 months). Before cooking, the products need to be desalted in water. Carminic acid, carmine (E120) stays mainly on the surface of the meat and its stability to temperature, light, pH and oxygen ensures characteristic appearance even after cooking.
- (7) Recital 7 of Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 stipulates that the approval of food additives should also take into account other factors relevant to the matter under consideration including, inter alia, traditional factors. Therefore, it is appropriate to maintain certain traditional products on the market in some Member States where the use of food additives comply with the general and specific conditions laid down in Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008.
- (8) On 18 November 2015, the European Food Safety Authority (the Authority) published a Scientific Opinion re-evaluating the safety of carminic acid, carmine (E 120) as a food additive <sup>(3)</sup>. The Authority concluded that there was no reason to revise the acceptable daily intake value (ADI) of 2,5 mg carminic acid/kg bw/day and that the refined exposure estimates for the non-brand-loyal scenario are below the ADI for all population groups. Carminic acid, carmine (E120) is authorised for use in a wide variety of foods. The extended use is proposed for a few niche meat products and at a lower maximum level than the other currently authorised uses in food category 08.3.1 'Non-heat-treated meat products' in Part E of Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008. Since according to the Scientific Opinion meat products are not among the main contributors to the total exposure to carminic acid, carmine (E 120), it is not expected that the proposed use will have a significant impact on the overall exposure which therefore will remain below the ADI.

- (9) Pursuant to Article 3(2) of Regulation (EC) No 1331/2008, the Commission has to seek the opinion of the Authority in order to update the Union list of food additives set out in Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008, except where the update in question is not liable to have an effect on human health. Since the extended use of carminic acid, carmine (E120) is not liable to have an effect on human health it is not necessary to seek the opinion of the Authority.
- (10) Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 should therefore be amended accordingly.
- (11) The measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Standing Committee on Plants, Animals, Food and Feed,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

COMMISSION REGULATION (EU) 2019/801*of 17 May 2019*amending Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards the use of mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471) on certain fresh fruits*(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2008 on food additives <sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular Article 10(3) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 lays down a Union list of food additives approved for use in food and their conditions of use.
- (2) That list may be updated in accordance with the common procedure referred to in Article 3(1) of Regulation (EC) No 1331/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council <sup>(2)</sup>, either on the initiative of the Commission or following an application.
- (3) Mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471) is a food additive authorised in a variety of foods in accordance with Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008.
- (4) On 17 February 2017, an application was submitted for the authorisation of the use of mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471) on all fresh fruits and vegetables. The application was subsequently made available to the Member States pursuant to Article 4 of Regulation (EC) No 1331/2008.
- (5) Mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471), when used as a glazing agent for a surface treatment of fresh fruits and vegetables, form a thin, inert, physical barrier layer against moisture loss and oxidation to protect the nutritional quality and extend the shelf life. According to the applicant, the proposed use would address an increasing demand for year-round availability of fresh produce, reduce food waste and improve the efficiency of natural resource use in agricultural production through reduced losses and use of lower carbon dioxide emission methods of transportation.
- (6) The application was discussed by the Working Party of Governmental Experts on Additives. The Working Party noted that there is a technological need in particular for the external treatment of certain fruits which are mainly imported from countries with a tropical climate and which need to be protected during long transports. Peels of those fruits are usually not consumed.
- (7) On 10 November 2017, the European Food Safety Authority ('the Authority') published a scientific opinion re-evaluating the safety of mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471) as food additives <sup>(3)</sup>. The Authority concluded that there was no need for a numerical acceptable daily intake and that the food additive mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471) was of no safety concern at the reported uses and use levels. Such conclusion is used for substances of a very low safety concern and only if there is reliable information for both exposure and toxicity and there is a low probability of adverse health effects in humans at doses that do not induce nutritional imbalance in animals <sup>(4)</sup>. However, the Authority recommended some modifications of the EU specifications for the food additive mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471). The Commission will address these recommendations separately following the general approach for the Authority's opinions in which some concerns have been identified <sup>(5)</sup>.

- (8) In addition, mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471) are intended to be used for the external treatment and are not expected to migrate into the internal edible part of the fruits. The treatment on fruits of which the peels are usually not consumed is not liable to have an effect on human health. It is therefore appropriate to allow the use of mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471) on certain fruits that are mainly imported from countries with a tropical/subtropical climate and of which peels are usually not consumed, i.e. citrus fruit, melons, pineapples, bananas, papayas, mangoes, avocados and pomegranates.
- (9) Pursuant to Article 3(2) of Regulation (EC) No 1331/2008, the Commission has to seek the opinion of the Authority in order to update the Union list of food additives set out in Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008, except where the update in question is not liable to have an effect on human health. Since the authorisation of use of mono- and diglycerides of fatty acids (E 471) on citrus fruit, melons, pineapples, bananas, papayas, mangoes, avocados and pomegranates constitutes an update of that list which is not liable to have an effect on human health, it is not necessary to seek the opinion of the Authority.
- (10) Annex II to Regulation (EC) No 1333/2008 should therefore be amended accordingly.
- (11) The measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Standing Committee on Plants, Animals, Food and Feed,

COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING REGULATION (EU) 2019/804*of 17 May 2019

concerning the renewal of the authorisation of organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060 and of selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397 as feed additives for all animal species and repealing Regulations (EC) No 1750/2006 and (EC) No 634/2007

(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 September 2003 on additives for use in animal nutrition <sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular Article 9(2) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003 provides for the authorisation of additives for use in animal nutrition and for the grounds and procedures for granting and renewing such authorisation.
- (2) The organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060 was authorised for 10 years as a feed additive for all animal species by Commission Regulation (EC) No 1750/2006 <sup>(2)</sup>. Selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397 was authorised for 10 years as a feed additive for all animal species by Commission Regulation (EC) No 634/2007 <sup>(3)</sup>.
- (3) In accordance with Article 14 of Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003, applications were submitted for the renewal of the authorisation of the organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060 and of selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397 as feed additives for all animal species, requesting those additives to be classified in the additive category 'nutritional additives'. Those applications were accompanied by the particulars and documents required under Article 14(2) of Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003.
- (4) The European Food Safety Authority ('the Authority') concluded in its opinions of 5 July 2018 <sup>(4)</sup> and 28 November 2018 <sup>(5)</sup> that the applicants have provided data demonstrating that the additives comply with the conditions of authorisation under the proposed conditions of use. The Authority confirmed its previous conclusions that the organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060 and the selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397 do not have adverse effects on animal health, consumer safety or the environment. It also stated for the organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060 capacities to be a respiratory sensitizer and hazardous upon inhalation, and for selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397 capacities to be an eye and mucosae irritant, and a skin and respiratory sensitizer. Therefore, the Commission considers that appropriate protective measures should be taken to prevent adverse effects on human health, in particular as regards the users of the additive. Finally, the Authority recommends changing the denomination of the additives.
- (5) It is appropriate to update the methods of analysis for selenium and selenomethionine based on the respective recent reports of the Reference Laboratory set up by Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003.
- (6) The assessment of the organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060 and of selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397 shows that the conditions for authorisation, as provided for in Article 5 of Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003, are satisfied. Accordingly, the authorisation of those additives should be renewed as specified in the Annex to this Regulation.

- (7) As a consequence of the renewal of the authorisations of the organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060 and of selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397 as feed additives under the conditions laid down in the Annex to this Regulation, Regulations (EC) No 1750/2006 and (EC) No 634/2007 should be repealed.
- (8) Since safety reasons do not require the immediate application of the modifications to the conditions of authorisation for the organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060 and for selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397, it is appropriate to allow a transitional period for interested parties to prepare themselves to meet the new requirements resulting from the renewal of the authorisation.
- (9) The measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Standing Committee on Plants, Animals, Food and Feed,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

The authorisation of the additives specified in the Annex, belonging to the additive category 'nutritional additives' and to the functional group 'compounds of trace elements', is renewed subject to the conditions laid down in that Annex.

Article 2

1. The organic form of selenium produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae CNCM I-3060, selenomethionine produced by Saccharomyces cerevisiae NCYC R397 and premixtures containing these substances, which are produced and labelled before 9 December 2019 in accordance with the rules applicable before 9 June 2019 may continue to be placed on the market and used until the existing stocks are exhausted.
2. Feed materials and compound feed containing the substances referred to in point 1, which are produced and labelled before 9 June 2020 in accordance with the rules applicable before 9 June 2019 may continue to be placed on the market and used until the existing stocks are exhausted if they are intended for food-producing animals.
3. Feed materials and compound feed containing the substances referred to in point 1, which are produced and labelled before 9 June 2021 in accordance with the rules applicable before 9 June 2019 may continue to be placed on the market and used until the existing stocks are exhausted if they are intended for non-food-producing animals.

Article 3

Regulations (EC) No 1750/2006 and (EC) No 634/2007 are repealed.

Article 4

This Regulation shall enter into force on the twentieth day following that of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 17 May 2019.

COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING REGULATION (EU) 2019/805*of 17 May 2019*concerning the authorisation of a preparation of muramidase produced by Trichoderma reesei DSM 32338 as a feed additive for chickens for fattening and minor poultry species for fattening (holder of authorisation DSM Nutritional Products Ltd, represented in EU by DSM Nutritional Products Sp. Z o.o)*(Text with EEA relevance)

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 September 2003 on additives for use in animal nutrition <sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular Article 9(2) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003 provides for the authorisation of additives for use in animal nutrition and for the grounds and procedures for granting such authorisation.
- (2) In accordance with Article 7 of Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003, an application was submitted for the authorisation of a preparation of muramidase produced by Trichoderma reesei DSM 32338. That application was accompanied by the particulars and documents required under Article 7(3) of that Regulation.
- (3) That application concerns the authorisation of a preparation of muramidase produced by Trichoderma reesei DSM 32338 as a feed additive for chickens for fattening and minor poultry species for fattening, to be classified in the additive category 'zootechnical additives'.
- (4) The European Food Safety Authority ('the Authority') concluded in its opinion of 14 June 2018 <sup>(2)</sup> that, under the proposed conditions of use, the preparation of muramidase produced by Trichoderma reesei DSM 32338 does not have an adverse effect on animal health, consumer safety or the environment. It was also concluded that the additive may have a skin/eyes irritancy potential and skin sensitisation potential. Therefore, the Commission considers that appropriate protective measures should be taken to prevent adverse effects on human health, in particular as regards the users of the additive. The Authority also concluded that the additive showed improvements of the feed to gain ratio in chickens for fattening. The Authority considered that this conclusion can be extrapolated to minor poultry species for fattening. The Authority does not consider that there is a need for specific requirements of post-market monitoring. It also verified the report on the method of analysis of the feed additive in feed submitted by the Reference Laboratory set up by Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003.
- (5) The assessment of the preparation of muramidase produced by Trichoderma reesei DSM 32338 shows that the conditions for authorisation, as provided for in Article 5 of Regulation (EC) No 1831/2003, are satisfied. Accordingly, the use of that preparation should be authorised as specified in the Annex to this Regulation.
- (6) The measures provided for in this Regulation are in accordance with the opinion of the Standing Committee on Plants, Animals, Food and Feed,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

The preparation specified in the Annex, belonging to the additive category 'zootechnical additives' and to the functional group 'other zootechnical additives', is authorised as an additive in animal nutrition, subject to the conditions laid down in the Annex.

<sup>(1)</sup> OJ L 268, 18.10.2003, p. 29.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the twentieth day following that of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 17 May 2019.

For the Commission
